BENGALURU: BankBazaar.com, an online financial marketplace, has launched a new 'One Loan Two Homes' program to help the flood-affected citizens of Chennai. Under this scheme, the company will contribute Rs.1000 to Habitat for Humanity India on every home loan disbursed between 1 Jan - 31 Mar, 2016. The money thus collected would be donated to Habitat for Humanity --- non-profit organisation that builds homes and provides housing-related services to low-income, marginalized families across India - to build disaster-resilient homes for people affected by the floods.

This program is part of BankBazaar.com's ongoing efforts to help those affected by the floods in Tamil Nadu. The devastation left by the floods has left many people homeless in Chennai and neighboring areas. Working closely with its customers and Habitat for Humanity India, BankBazaar.com hopes to bring relief to the displaced people of Chennai.

This is not the first such initiative by BankBazaar.com. Earlier, the BankBazaar team distributed more than 10,000 packets of food and provided other emergency supplies and essentials to the local Chennai public. During the worst of floods, some of the BankBazaar.com employees went out of their way to launch a rescue using boats, and helped evacuate more than 300 people stranded by the rising waters. During the floods, BankBazaar arranged for temporary accommodation for all employees and their families who were stranded due to water logging.

BankBazaar also arranged for doctors to visit all its offices in Chennai to provide free medical checkup and reimburse all outpatient medical bills of flood-affected employees and their immediate families in December.

BankBazaar.com gives customers instant customised rate quotes on loans, credit cards or any other personal finance products. It simplifies the loan application process. Anyone can instantly search for tailor-made offers, compare, customize it as per his or her need or
