

Birla Sun Life launches cancer cover plan

Our Bureau

Hyderabad, September 1:

Birla Sun Life Insurance has launched a 'cancer shield plan' for protection against any possible risk. "Cancer patients die not because of lack of treatment but due to unaffordable treatment in most cases," Pankaj Razdan, MD and CEO, told spokespersons at a press conference here on Wednesday

The entry age for the new plan, which comes at a premium of as low as ₹ 450 per annum, is 18-65 years with policy term of minimum five years to maximum 20 years. The sum assured ranges from ₹ 10 lakh to ₹ 50 lakh.

The customer is provided 30 per cent of the sum assured on diagnosis of early stage cancer and 100 per cent of sum assured in the case of advanced stage cancer after deducting previously paid claim of early stage cancer, if any.

(This article was published in the Business Line print edition dated September 2, 2016)

MORE FROM BUSINESS LINE

'Vardha' to peak as severe cyclone today, away from coastal Andhra

The rise and fall of Emperor Modi

Former EY veteran relives Kerala experience to set up own venture