MUMBAI: ICICI Bank [BSE 2.35 %] will spend Rs 100 crore in corporate social responsibility projects in the country this fiscal, managing director and chief executive officer Chanda Kochhar said.

Half of that amount will be spent on providing vocational training through the bank's non profit company ICICI Foundation to the youth from economically weaker sections, in electrical & home appliance repair, refrigeration & AC repair, two & three wheeler service technician, selling skills and office administration. By March this year, 36,000 students would have passed out of ICICI Academy which came into being in 2013. By the end of next fiscal the bank plans to train another 45,000 youth, taking the total number of trained people to over 1 lakh.
