

NSE names bankers for IPO

Our Bureau

1

Small Business Ideas

2

Life Insurance for Seniors

3

Best Investments for Retirement

Mumbai, August 23:

Taking a step towards listing its shares, the National Stock Exchange (NSE) has appointed Citigroup Global Markets, JM Financial Institutional Securities, Kotak Mahindra Capital Company and Morgan Stanley India as global coordinators (merchant bankers or book running lead managers) for its IPO.

The decision was taken by the NSE board on August 22, said a statement from India's largest bourse.

NSE also appointed Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas legal advisor and approved the appointment of Price Waterhouse as its Joint Statutory Auditor with existing auditors.

(This article was published in the Business Line print edition dated August 24, 2016)