A

day after going live, the Unified Payment Interface (UPI) for banks is gathering steam. Downloads of the app by bank customers from the Google Play Store crossed the 10,000 mark. Of 21 banks whose UPI apps have been permitted by the National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI), those of 13 are available on the Google Play Store. These include Axis Bank, Union Bank of India, Vijaya Bank, United Bank of India, Karnataka Bank and Catholic Syrian Bank. However, the country's largest lender, State Bank of India, and of Bank of Baroda are expected to join the UPI platform only in ...
