

Govt nominee directors changed in four PSBs

KR SRIVATS

PRINT · T+

Share

Share 2

New Delhi, August 18: The Centre has changed its nominee directors in four public sector banks (PSBs), bringing in four Joint Secretary-level officials as 'Government Nominee Directors' in these banks.

The four PSBs are: Allahabad Bank, Punjab and Sind Bank, United Bank of India and Central Bank of India.

At Allahabad Bank, the Centre has appointed Rajeev Ranjan, Joint Secretary in the Department of Expenditure, as its Nominee Director in place of Anshuman Sharma.

For Punjab and Sind Bank, S Selvakumar, Joint Secretary in the Department of Economic Affairs has been appointed Government Nominee Director in place of SR Mehar, official sources said..

Sameer Kumar Khare, Joint Secretary in the Department of Economic Affairs, has been appointed Nominee Director at United Bank of India. He has come in place of AK Dogra.

And at Central Bank of India, the Centre has appointed Govind Mohan, Joint Secretary in the Department of Economic Affairs. He has replaced Saurabh Garg for this board-level position.

It may be recalled that the Reserve Bank of India had recently initiated prompt corrective action (PCA) against Central Bank of India.

Centre brings in four Joint Secretary-level officials as 'Government Nominee Directors' in Allahabad Bank, Punjab and Sind Bank, United Bank of India and Central Bank of India

(This article was published in the Business Line print edition dated August 19, 2017)